

Registered with FEMA and still waiting for assistance? Be Sure to Stay in Touch.

Disaster survivors who registered with FEMA before the 1st of May and are still waiting for assistance, need to keep in touch with FEMA.

Several reasons could delay assistance:

- FEMA may not have your insurance settlement information.
- Perhaps your contact information has changed.

No matter the reason, if you are still waiting for Federal Disaster Assistance, touch base with FEMA.

Call FEMA at 800-621-3362 or check the status of your application online at www.disasterassistance.gov
